From the Offices of the Internal Investigations Bureau of Celestial Affairs

Following recent faraway incidents in which the mind has obstructed the soul by betraying the heart vice versa in many cases (to the power of three) and pertaining to the illegal manufacture of Contrived Connection consumed in all forms, rendering a significant increase in the number of irrelevant and irreverent moments we now know to be fleeting lies

furthermore, regarding the actions adjourned by the Department of Serendipitous Speculation in the form of Bill 24742 a propitious amendment in reference to the regulation of teaspoons and wheelbarrows as sacred units of measurement we hereby decree, by order of the Reckless Wanderer Act, backed by an official convoy to the stars, the following proclamation to be instated as Constitutional Commons regarding all knowledge and sense, and henceforth True, in perpetuity

(please read the text and heed it)

You will not be punished for forgetting.

However

your privileges will be revoked if you remember but cease to exist

no longer will you know the crow's coinage in the glare of the sun as shadows shift we will reclaim your sleeping memories effective immediately all proceedings originally gifted to you must be surrendered as evidence

(as it has fed you, so too must you feed eternity)

We look forward to receiving your documentation, and eagerly await [re]meeting you at your upcoming review.

Thank you for your cooperation.

With Love,

XXXX XXXXXXXXXXXX

P.S.

For those who can no longer remember (but did not choose to forget):

Do not be afraid.

We are with you, as the sky is with the sea.
